UnisonSteadfast and Zurich Resilience Solutions enter into cooperation

Hamburg/Zurich: June 5, 2023

UnisonSteadfast, the largest independent network of medium-sized insurance brokers is pleased to announce that Zurich Resilience Solutions (ZRS), the commercial risk advisory and services unit of Zurich Insurance Group (Zurich), has become a supplier to the global network for risk management services and solutions.

Under the agreement between both organisations, UnisonSteadfast members in 140 countries have access to ZRS – a business unit created to help businesses address a rapidly changing risk landscape and to provide holistic risk management service solutions for clients worldwide, covering, inter alia, Climate Change Resilience, Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (DEI) and a wide range of ESG topics.

“We are pleased to cooperate with Zurich Resilience Solutions, as it allows us to make Zurich’s risk engineering services and a highly valuable industry expertise available to our broker members,” said Wolfgang Mercier, UnisonSteadfast President & CEO. “UnisonSteadfast is currently developing a global risk management strategy for our broker members. With direct access to the expertise of the unique network of more than 850 Zurich risk engineers, ZRS will become a part of our global risk management approach and our offering for the UnisonSteadfast broker community.”

“Risk management has become a strategic priority as businesses adapt to new challenges and build resilience to ensure their business continuity now and in the future. By working with UnisonSteadfast, we can support businesses to achieve this with our global team of risk experts and engineers”, said Hanno Mijer, Global Head of Zurich Resilience Solutions.
